Choose your favorite

Although our Elite XS lock is exclusively available in black, we offer a wide range of customization options for the door hardware to ensure it complements the unique style and ambiance of your hotel. We understand that the finer details make a significant impact on the overall design, which is why we provide multiple finishes for the accompanying door hardware.

You can choose from a selection of elegant colors, including anthracite, black, brass, and stainless steel. This flexibility allows you to match the hardware seamlessly with the interior design of your hotel, ensuring a cohesive and sophisticated appearance.

Loved by many

The Elite XS is rapidly gaining popularity, thanks to the perfect combination of elegance and practicality in its design. Its refined appearance, paired with user-friendly functionality and exceptional reliability, has made it one of our most sought-after locks.

Whether used in hotels, residential properties, or commercial spaces, this lock consistently delivers high performance and a sense of sophistication. Its growing appeal comes from the fact that it doesn't just prioritize security but also enhances the overall look and feel of any space. The Elite XS is more than just a lock; it's a design statement that reflects both innovation and quality, making it one of the most cherished products in our current collection.
